The Message:

The Practice of Encouragement

11. The Local Church: A Restoring Community

- A. The joy of restoration lies more in the awareness of _____ in the project than in the work of restoration.
- B. God wants and employs people who consider it their main privilege and responsibility to _____ and _____ Him. 1 Cor 10:31
- C. The work of restoration is designed to help people who are basically self-centered, unbelieving and fearful to become thoroughly _____.
- D. Churches are called to seek to develop _____ in the value and importance of teaching, fellowship and evangelism that will lead to true worship.
- E. Counseling is basically the _____ of Biblical Truth found in the person of Jesus Christ to individual lives.

List of Permanent Spiritual Gifts.

1. Teaching. 1 Cor 12:28; Rom 12:7 is the supernatural ability to excel in the communication of God's Word to others.
2. Helps. 1 Cor 12:28 refers to a gift that supernaturally assists the gifts of others. It functions in many different areas. One example would be in the collection or preparation of food to nourish others so that others could more fully pursue their specific gifts (Acts 6:1-6).
3. Administration. 1 Cor 12:28 is the supernatural ability to organize and oversee the resources that God has given to His Church.
4. Serving. Rom 12:7; 1 Pet 4:11 is the supernatural ability to carry out the physical functions of ministry in a practical manner.
5. Exhortation. Rom 12:8 is the supernatural ability to recognize and meet the need for encouragement within the Body of Christ.
6. Giving. Rom 12:8 is the supernatural ability to share one's resources with others in a higher proportion than would be normally expected. It is unselfishness measured by generosity, not by the specific amount that is given but by the willful sharing of resources.
7. Leading. Rom 12:8 is the supernatural ability to guide and direct individuals in the accomplishment of the service of the Church.
8. Mercy. Rom 12:8 is the supernatural ability to recognize and get help for those in spiritual or physical need.
9. Evangelism. Eph 4:11 is the supernatural ability to present the gospel of Jesus Christ to individuals or groups of people in ways they can clearly understand.
10. Pastor-Teacher. Eph 4:11 is the supernatural ability to shepherd God's flock through teaching and applying His Word.
