

Prophetical Babylon

(Isa 13:1-22; 21:1-10; 47-48; Jer 50-51; Rev 17-18)

Wisdom. Rev 17:9

"Here is the mind which has wisdom (SOPHIA = cf 13:18). The seven heads are seven mountains (a neuter indicating symbols for kingdoms cf. 8:8) on which the woman sits, (which the woman sits upon them-the mountains.)

C.T./L.T. = "Here is the mind which has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains which the woman sits upon them, and they are (they = "heads" = a double analogy) seven kings (masculine); (the) five (heads, mountains, kings) have fallen, one is (Rome), the other (ALLOS = of the same kind) has not yet come; and when he comes (Aor Act Subj ERCHOMAI = may come; indefinite as to timing not the event itself), he must (DEI = is obligated) remain (AUTOS = masc sing emph the king, + Aor Act Inf MENW = abide, remain) a little while. (specific grammar used indicates this is a man)

C.T./L.T. = and they are: (a) seven kings; (b) the five (heads, mountains, kings) have fallen, the one is (Domitian of Rome), and the other has not yet come; (c) and when he may come he is obligated to remain himself a little while.

More Description. Rev 17:11

"And the beast (with 7 heads) which was and is not (same construction), is himself also an eighth (king of a kingdom), and is one of the seven (kings), and he goes to (Pres Act Ind HUPAGW = futuristic; going to go to) destruction (APWLEIA = 18x; to ruin; Matt 7:13; John 17:12; Matt 26:8; 2 Pet 2:1).

C.T./L.T. = And the beast which was and is not is himself also an eighth, and is out of the seven, and he is going to go to ruination.

Summary:

1. A double analogy is revealed. 17:9
2. The seven heads refer to both kingdoms and kings.
3. Verse 10b, "the five heads have fallen," qualifies the kingdoms.
4. Verse 10c, "and when he may come," and 11 qualify the king of the 7th kingdom.

5. By 96 A.D., Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Persia and Greece had fallen.
6. Rome was in existence with its fall and revival still future.
7. Note that Rome had to fall before it could be revived; hence no Rapture until Rome fell. The Rapture was not imminent since the Day of Pentecost.
8. The Beast is the king of the Seventh Kingdom, the Revived Roman Empire.
9. And is the 8th king remaining of a ten nation confederacy, after he defeats three of them. Dan 7:7-8,24
10. The grammar indicates that he is a specific king of one of the seven kingdoms.
11. He has to be one of the first five.
12. The best candidate is the "little horn" of Daniel 7. Dan 7:8
13. Some comments on the Antichrist:
  - A. He is not from the U.S.A.
  - B. He is not from Rome.
  - C. He comes out of hell.
  - D. He is not a new personage of the last generation of the Church Age but returns in the same manner as Moses and Elijah.

The Identity of the Ten Horns. Rev 17:12

"And the ten horns which you saw are ten kings, who have not yet received a kingdom (thus they are all for the seventh head as the 6th one, Rome, is in existence at the time of writing), but they receive authority as kings with the beast for one hour.

C.T./L.T. = And the ten horns which you saw are ten kings, who have not yet received a kingdom, but they are going to receive authority as kings with the beast for one hour.

The Purpose. Rev 17:13

"These (10 kings) have one purpose (going to have, GNOM8 = 8x; unified opinion) and they give their power and authority to the beast.

C.T./L.T. = These (10 kings) are going to have one purpose and they are going to give their power and authority to the beast.

Summary:

1. The ten kings were not around in 96 A.D.
2. They will be in power at the same time and not in succession, thus they are contemporaneous and not successive with each other.
3. This is prophesied in Daniel. Dan 7:7-8
4. No other attempt to revive Rome has involved ten kingdoms.
(cf the so-called "Club of Rome" that is around today. Founded 1968 with focus on global warming, humanitarian challenges and globalization of currency etc.)
"The Club of Rome is an organisation of individuals who share a common concern for the future of humanity and strive to make a difference. Our members are notable scientists, economists, businessmen and businesswomen, high level civil servants and former heads of state from around the world.”<sup>1</sup>

5. The kings will align with the Antichrist during the seven years.
6. The Antichrist's religion will have the political and military power that it needs to seek world domination.
7. What is going on today? (Taken from their various websites)
  - A. International Criminal Court. (The Hague, Established 2002)

International law would come to supersede the Constitutions of nations. In the US it would have to be brought about by treaty. This means that if the world wants to take your property, rights as a US Citizen, etc., they can do so and try you in an international court.
  - B. Regionalism.

A move to group together nations that are geographically close to each other. They are seeking 10 regions throughout the world. The North American Union would be one of them. The Club of Rome, Illuminati, New World Order. Consolidate and Conquer. They are seeking to bring a redistribution of all resources, with of course the Elites in control.
  - C. Attitudes promoted internationally:
    - 1) A world consciousness must be developed through which every individual realizes his role as a member of the world community... It must become part of the consciousness of every individual that "the basic unit of human cooperation and hence survival is moving from the national to the global level.
    - 2) A new ethic in the use of material resources must be developed which will result in a style of life compatible with the oncoming age of scarcity... One should be proud of saving and conserving rather than of spending and discarding.
    - 3) An attitude toward nature must be developed based on harmony rather than conquest. Only in this way can man apply in practice what is already accepted in theory - that is, that man is an integral part of nature.
    - 4) If the human species is to survive, man must develop a sense of identification with future generations and be ready to trade benefits to the next generations for the benefits to himself. If each generation aims at maximum good for itself, Homo sapiens are as good as doomed."
  - D. New Technology.

This greatly increases surveillance and the potential to remove your rights. Orwell's 1984. Being promoted now as acceptable. Used 911 as a springboard to expand surveillance. Not necessarily a bad thing if used for protection, but it is evil when used for oppression. Law-abiding citizens should not have to worry about it, but what if they change the laws? Like, Freedom of Religion.
  - E. Unmanageable national debt.

Not just in the US but around the world. An intentional design to overload the welfare system so that it creates a crisis and bankrupts the nation, and thus the world. Then to introduce a Marxist agenda. The intent is to have a one-world currency. U.N. Conference of Trade and Development, 2013. International Monetary Fund, World Economic Forum involved.

- 1) Lack of competition – No currency is void of the possibility of becoming debased. Competition between differing national currencies the globe over is healthy. It allows citizens and businesses to choose opposing currencies if they do not agree with the direction of their government's monetary policy. If there is a one world currency, there is no more room for debate, choice, or alternatives. It empowers the government and removes power from people, which brings us to our next point.
- 2) Centralized Power – Consider again the unification of world banks all having common interest in one currency and one currency alone. Of a certainty in this world, money is power. If the richest and most powerful people on earth share a common goal for their money, where will that ultimate power lead the nations of this world? India has already moved in this direction with a central bank in Delhi.

F. Spiritual ecumenism.

Their Mantra: one of the mistakes that human beings make is believing that there is only one way. There are many ways, many paths to what you call God. What if you never heard the name "Jesus." The move to unite Catholics and Evangelicals as well as the move to unite Christians and Muslims into Chrislam.

G. The Georgia Guide Stones:

On one of the highest hilltops in Elbert County, Georgia stands a huge granite monument. Engraved in eight different languages on the four giant stones that support the common capstone are 10 Guides, or commandments. That monument is alternately referred to as The Georgia Guidestones, or the American Stonehenge. Though relatively unknown to most people, it is an important link to the Occult Hierarchy that dominates the world in which we live.

The origin of that strange monument is shrouded in mystery because no one knows the true identity of the man, or men, who commissioned its construction. All that is known for certain is that in June 1979, a well-dressed, articulate stranger visited the office of the Elberton Granite Finishing Company and announced that he wanted to build an edifice to transmit a message to mankind. He identified himself as R. C. Christian, but it soon became apparent that was not his real name. He said that he represented a group of men who wanted to offer direction to humanity, but to date, almost two decades later, no one knows who R. C. Christian really was, or the names of those he represented. Several things are apparent.

The messages engraved on the Georgia Guidestones deal with four major fields: (1) Governance and the establishment of a world government, (2) Population and reproduction control, (3) The environment and man's relationship to nature, and (4) Spirituality.

In the public library in Elberton, I found a book written by the man who called himself R.C. Christian. I discovered that the monument he commissioned had been erected in recognition of Thomas Paine and the occult philosophy he espoused. Indeed, the Georgia Guidestones are used for occult ceremonies and mystic celebrations to this very day. Tragically, only one religious leader in the area had the courage to speak out against the American Stonehenge, and he has recently relocated his ministry.

A message consisting of a set of ten guidelines or principles is engraved on the Georgia Guidestones in eight different languages, one language on each face of the four large upright stones. Moving clockwise around the structure from due north, these languages are: English, Spanish, Swahili, Hindi, Hebrew, Arabic, Chinese, and Russian.

1. Maintain humanity under 500,000,000 in perpetual balance with nature.
2. Guide reproduction wisely — improving fitness and diversity.
3. Unite humanity with a living new language.
4. Rule passion — faith — tradition — and all things with tempered reason.
5. Protect people and nations with fair laws and just courts.
6. Let all nations rule internally resolving external disputes in a world court.
7. Avoid petty laws and useless officials.
8. Balance personal rights with social duties.
9. Prize truth — beauty — love — seeking harmony with the infinite.
10. Be not a cancer on the earth — Leave room for nature — Leave room for nature.
